Forever

BY ERIC THOMAS

Forever in your heart. Right now I'm in a different place. You can shed a tear for me if you must. Though it may seem we're apart, I'm closer than I ever was, I'm here inside your heart! I'm with you when you greet each day, I'm there to share your sunsets too. I'm with you always and when that day arrives when we are no longer apart, I'll smile and hold you close to me, forever in my heart.

Obituary

Jacqueline “Jackie” Commodore was born August 17, 1950, to Emma and William “Bill” Commodore in Edmonton Maryland. Jackie was the youngest of three, the trio “Jenny, Jackie, and Peaches”. Jackie was a dedicated and loving sister, aunt, and friend to many. She attended Prince George’s county public schools. After graduating Northwestern High School in 1969 she enlisted in the United States Marine Corps and was medically discharged due to health concerns.

After returning home Jackie worked a number odd jobs until eventually being convinced by George “Sunny” Stubs, beloved family friend and “big brother”, to apply for WSSC, where she worked for 29 years and eventually retired.

Her love of service and fellowship began at a young age as a Girl Scout and Candy stripper at PG hospital. She became a member of North Brentwood AME Zion church under the leadership of Rev. Clarence Cross where she remained a loyal member over the many years. Jackie served in the capacity of deaconess, choir member, and custodian.

She enjoyed traveling, walkathons, and socializing with family and friends. She was quirky, eccentric, and full of life. She was a light that all would gravitate towards. For all her quirks Jackie was a life line and integral part of not only her family but community as well. She was warm, loving, and always willing to offer a helping hand.

Jackie is preceded in death by her mother and father Emma and William Commodore, Aunt Maggie Rice, nieces Gale Cross, Valerie Crawford-Suggs, Alexis Adams, and Carlota Bryant.

Although she leaves no husband or children behind, she leaves to cherish her loving memory sisters Virginia Crawford and Lucille Graves (Robert, Lucille’s husband), nephews Carlton and Michael Crawford, and Leo Stubbs, Godson Johnathan Crawford, and a host of great and great-great nieces and nephews.

Jackie will always be remembered by those she loved and that loved her for her sacrifice, service, dedication, and sense of humor.
